GREELEY STAMPEDE CALL FOR CALF SCRAMBLE/STICK HORSE RODEO ENTRIES

Greeley, CO.— The Greeley Independence Stampede is now taking entries for the Stick Horse Rodeo and the Calf Scramble, both of which will take place on June 30, 2002 at the 80th annual celebration set for June 27 – July 7, 2002.

HOW TO COMPETE

Stick Horse Rodeo and Calf Scramble contestants will be chosen through a lottery drawing. Entries for both events will be taken at the Stampede Office located in Island Grove Regional Park, Greeley, as well as four satellite box office locations. Satellite box office locations are at the Greeley Mall (next to JC Penny), the parking lot of Bubba's Bar-B-Que parking lot (W. 10th Street and 36th Avenue), in Ft. Collins at Markley Motors and at Cache Bank & Trust both located on College Avenue. Entries will be taken until June 27, 2002 at which time a drawing will take place and winning entries will be notified by phone.

REGULATIONS AND PRIZES

Stick Horse Rodeo, June 30

There will be 3 rodeos conducted throughout Family Day on June 30 at the south end of the Stampede grounds with 30 contestants in each rodeo. Boys and girls, 3-6 years of age are eligible to compete in a variety of rodeo events, just like the "big guys", only on stick horses—stick horses will be provided by the Greeley Stampede. There will be a number of prizes for the youngsters and plenty of family fun!

Calf Scramble, June 30

This event will take place during the 1:30 p.m. PRCA Rodeo in the Stampede Arena and is limited to 16 contestants, boys and girls 12-14 years of age. The first eight contestants to halter a calf will receive a $500 scholarship that will be placed in a bank account until the contestant can produce a high school diploma and proof of acceptance to an institute of higher education.
