Greeley Stampede offers new carnival Mega Pass fund-raiser

The Greeley Stampede has partnered with the Bill Hames Shows to create an exciting new opportunity for community groups & school clubs to raise money. Northern Colorado groups will be selling the newly introduced Stampede carnival Mega Pass for a chance to raise money and win great prizes.

The Stampede Mega Pass is a wristband that allows unlimited rides on Monday, June 28 through Friday, July 2, 2010 at the Bill Hames Carnival for only $39. That is a savings of $86! The Greeley Stampede will make a $4 donation for every pass sold by the group. In addition to helping raise money for the group, individual sellers will also be able to earn prizes including a complimentary Mega Pass wristband, Stampede Bucks, $100 cash and a $500 savings bond. The Stampede will also offer outstanding prizes for the group that sells the most passes. The top selling group will receive tickets to the June 25 Craig Morgan & Joe Nichols with David Nail concert and a pizza party. The second highest selling group will receive tickets to a Pro Rodeo and a pizza party.

Interested groups and clubs can contact Justin Watada by calling 970-356-7787 or email justin@greeleystampede.org.

The Bill Hames Shows was founded in 1910 in Fort Worth, Texas. Bill Hames first started the family friendly carnival company with one horse drawn merry-go-round ride. Today, the Bill Hames Shows feature almost one hundred rides, games and attractions and travels to over thirty events per year in the Texas and Rocky Mountain region. The Bill Hames Shows have been the official carnival midway of the Greeley Stampede for the past twenty-six years.
